DR. MAURICE M. (MOE) PIERCE 1910-2000

Maurice (Moe) Pierce, age 90, passed away on Tuesday, August 8th, 2000 at the Sharon Home, with his family by his side. He is survived by Ethel, his wife of 65 years, his daughter and son-in-law Sheila and David Brodovsky, his grandchildren, Billy and Libby, Stephen and France, Sharon and Mauricio, and Sidney and Cary, and his great-grandchildren, Jacob and Max, Alex and Joel, Talia, and Leah and Maren. He is also survived by his brother, Jack his sisters, Gertie Nepon and Brownie (Harold) Fleishman, sister-in-law Barbara Pierce, brother-in-law Jack Sherman and many nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his brothers, Fred and Max, and sister Patty Sherman.

Moe arrived in Winnipeg from Russia at the age of 3, grew up in the north end and attended school in Winnipeg graduating in medicine in 1935. He started as a country doctor in rural Saskatchewan and later trained in England to become an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist.

When World War II broke out, he enlisted and served as a surgeon in Europe. Following the war, he returned to Winnipeg where he began his practice. He was involved in the medical community, chairing the MMS, the predecessor to medicare. He was the head of ENT at St Boniface, Misericordia and Grace Hospitals and worked at Deer Lodge Hospital for 48 years.

He touched many lives, both as a doctor and in his community involvement. He was a dynamic, charismatic individual who was respected as a caring family member, physician and friend. His door was always open. Everyone knew that they could stop by his home for advice, be it medical or otherwise.

Moe was passionate about the symphony and the opera and served as presidents of both boards. He took great pleasure in being the personal physician to both local and visiting performers.

He was a strong supporter of Israel and the local Jewish community. He had a long-standing friendship with Menachem Begin and his wife and in 1988 was honored by the Ben-Gurion University.

The importance of family was always stressed. "Zaida Moe" was thankful that he lived to see and enjoy his seven great-grandchildren.

The family would like to thank Doreen Natividad, Paulina Trinidad and Virgie de Jesus, his companions for the last few years, who treated him with the utmost kindness and dignity. The family would also like to thank the staff of the 2nd and 4th floor of the Sharon Home.

Funeral services were held at the Shaarey Zedek Synagogue on Thursday August 10th, 2000. Pall bearers were his three grandsons, Billy, Stephen, and Sidney Brodovsky, his niece, Ellen Fleishman and nephews, Jack Nepon and Sidney Dashefsky.

Contributions in his memory may be made to the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba (#400-123 Doncaster St, Wpg, MB, R3N 2B2. Ph.477-7525). Shiva was observed at 766 Campbell Street.

SAM M. ROSNER

On Thursday, August 3rd, 2000 Sam Rosner, age 94 passed away at home, as was his wish. He was a wonderful man, for whom family was the utmost importance. Sam is survived by his beloved, Bella, his wife and his two children - his son Bruce (Susan) and his daughter Gail Fine

(Irwin); grandchildren Kimberly, Adam, Jamie, Julie and Jonathan; as well as two brothers Abe and Bernard. He was predeceased by his brothers, Charlie, Saul, Ephraim, Irvin, Israel, and his parents Moses and Julia.

He was born in 1906, in Plum Coulee, Manitoba and later moved with the family to Lowe Farm, Manitoba. He was the first of eight sons to leave home and set up a business in Morris, Manitoba.

Sam married Belle Lubart over 64 years ago. Together they established the Mannequin ladies wear clothing store on Kelvin Street, and then Debbs Millinery on Selkirk Avenue. They expanded the millinery business to Portage Avenue, which continued to be very successful for over 30 years.

A quiet man of few words, Sam was a man of action. His family, friends and employees, always admired his independence, his energy, his wit, and his integrity. He was kind and sensitive. Throughout his life he consistently helped, advised and cared for others.

Sam had a keen interest in Jewish and family history, nature and new technologies. He had impeccable accounting skills and expertise in carpentry. He enjoyed gardening, created many toys for his grandchildren, and later in life painted elaborate watercolors. His greatest pride was to watch his family grow and develop.

Sam has filled our lives with wonderful memories that we will cherish. He was a man who celebrated life. He will remain in our hearts forever.

The funeral was held on August 6th 2000 at the Shaarey Zedek Cemetery. Pallbearers were Irwin Fine; Kimberly, Adam, and Jamie Rosner; Gerald Rosner; and Walter Saltzberg. Rabbis David Cantor and Louis Berkal officiated.

The family wishes to thank Dr. David Wiseman, Esther, Maria, Grace, Barbara, Dawn, Wilf, and the many other caregivers. We would like to extend a special thank-you to Lynne Fineman.

A fund has been established to honor the life of Sam Rosner at the Jewish Foundation of Manitoba (477-7525).
