Kaiser-Frazer Haifa Plant Boosts Israel's Economy

CONFERENCE AT HAIFA PLANT: Officials of Kaiser-Frazer of Israel pose with Willow Run executives at Haifa where K-F cars are soon to be assembled. At the temporary headquarters of the Israel plan shown in background, the group discussed production plans, calling for 6000 cars a year. Left to right: Nathan Abrahamovitch, of the Israel firm; Ephraim Ilin, part owner; Clay P. Bedford, executive vice-president at Willow Run; Abraham Friedman, part owner; Hickman Price, Jr., executive vice-president of K-F Export corporation, and A. K. Gage, director of K-F Export's eastern hemisphere division. In Winnipeg, Einarsson Motors Ltd. feature showings of the complete, ultra-modern Kaiser-Frazer lines.

the Metropolitan Opera, Jan Pearce has also been seen by movie-goers in "Carnegie Hall" and "Something in the Wind," with Deanna Durbin. VITVA VRONSKY and VICTOR BABIN, the popular duo-pianists, made a deep impression on celebrity audiences when they appeared here in 1940 and 1948. Born the same year in Russia of Russian Jewish parentage, Mr. and Mrs. Babin both studied under the great Artur Schnabel. They were recently voted by Newsweek magazine "the most brilliant two-piano team of our generation."
