his anti-Jewish, anti-Negro songs.
A mimeographed paper put out in Toledo, Ohio, for songwriters recently carried an article, "The Music and Show Business Is Jew Business." "Controlling America's popular music has offered the Jews no obstacle inasmuch as they have a vise-hold on the chief song outlets (the theater, movies, radio and television) as well as the music publishing and phonograph recording business," said the article. "Unless you belong to the clique of George and Ira Gershwin, Jerome Kern, Irving Caesar, Frank Loesser, Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein, Harold Rome, and Irving Berlin, you will find your efforts blocked at every-turn. They want you to write for fun, while they write for money.
Thus, if there is any doubt in your mind we invite you to glance over the following list of names. It is incomplete but you will probably find your favorite entertainers and all of them are Jewish." Included in the list were Mickey Rooney, Ethel Merman, Judy Garland, and the Andrews Sisters!

of that publication receive anti-Jewish mail, not necessarily concerned with the music business. Ed Morley, an Irishman in San Francisco, wrote us that among the mail he received was a letter from a songwriter "asking me to boycott all Jewish papers, stores, etc., etc., and asked could I tell any place where they couldn't find any Jews. I wrote and told him to go to Hell - he wouldn't find any there!"

A goodly number of music publishers are Jewish, and over a period of 25 years they have gained stature in the music industry. They are recognized as leaders of their business; they have sought to publish what the public will buy; to publish songs that can't be sold is obviously to extend an invitation to bankruptcy.

Even an Irving Berlin, a Richard Rodgers, and a Cole Porter have to rely on public likes and dislikes to determine whether a song is or is not a success; the public doesn't buy a song simply because it is an Irving Berlin song. Berlin will be the first to tell you of the hundreds of songs he has written which were flops. But the public knows that this Jewish songwriter is the composer of the most successful popular Christmas song, "White Christmas"; the most successful popular Easter song, "Easter Parade"; and same plane, there is no competition.

A publisher is interested in getting his song out on records; a recording company is interested in selling records. It is not usual for a customer to walk into a record store and ask simply for an Irving Berlin record; he wants a particular tune that he has heard on a disk company. They too are "songwriters" jockey show, or on television, or from a jukebox. The name of the songwriter is usually incidental.
