Tel Aviv Defenses Rushed As Jewish City Buries Its Dead

JERUSALEM (WNS) — Palestine grimly speeded defense preparations as the all-Jewish city of Tel Aviv buried its 14 victims of an enemy air raid, the first the great Jewish metropolis has experienced since September 9, when Italian bombers roared over Tel Aviv, killing 121 Jews.

In addition to the 14 killed, most of them more than 70 years of age and inmates of a Jewish home for invalids on Bilu Street in the northern district of Tel Aviv, 24 Jews were injured. One of the victims was an 82-year-old woman who died of heart failure during the bombing.

A huge throng turned out for the funeral services for the city's dead. Mayor Israel Rokach spoke at services in front of the Hadassah hospital and Rabbi Amiel chanted "kaddish" before the Great Synagogue. An air raid alarm was sounded during the services but no enemy planes appeared.

The raid shocked the country since Tel Aviv is devoid of any military objectives. The raiders did little damage, scoring their only hit on the home for invalids. Included among the dead was Mendel Probst, prominent bibliographer.

Jaffe Make Flying Visits; To Speak Here Monday At H.S.B.A.

Leib Jaffe, world Zionist leader, director of the Palestine Foundation Fund (Keren Hayesod) of Jerusalem, arrived by plane from Montreal on Wednesday afternoon to bring a message to Winnipeg Jewry from Palestine and Britain. Mr. Jaffe will speak at an open meeting on Monday, June 23, at 8.30 p.m., in the Hebrew Sick Benefit hall, 239 Saklirk ave. Mr. Jaffe arrived on this continent last week by clipper from England, where he experienced the blitzkrieg over London for three and one half months. While there Mr. Jaffe participated in raising funds for the defence and upbuilding of the Jewish Homeland in Palestine.

LEIB JAFFE

Mr. Jaffe, who is well known to Winnipeg audiences, is one of the foremost Zionist leaders in the world today. Possessed of a dynamic personality he is a man of action. Fully acquainted with the situation in Palestine, he will present an important report to the meeting on Monday evening.

A number of other gatherings have been arranged for Mr. Jaffe during his stay in the city. He leaves by plane for Montreal Tuesday morning.

Mr. Jaffe had the highest praise for the spirit of the people of Britain when interviewed Thursday morning by The Jewish Post. "The Jewish people, heavy sufferers in the raids, are carrying on with the same courage and determination as other sections of the British people," he said. The Jewish

Hungary Confiscates Jewish Homes; Hundreds Arrested In Raids

Geneva (WNS)—The Hungarian government has ordered the immediate confiscation of homes owned by Jews in the Transylvanian province which Rumania was forced to cede to Hungary several months ago, it was reported here. Hungarian officials explained that many more homes were needed to meet the requirements of the Hungarian people.

It was understood that the confiscated Jewish homes would be turned over to Hungarians returning to Hungary from Nazi-occupied Yugoslavia. No information was forthcoming on whether the Jews would be compensated for their homes and other possessions.

Meanwhile, it was reported that several hundred Jews were arrested when Hungarian police staged a series of raids in the Jewish quarter of Budapest. Police entered safes and restaurants and herded hundreds of Jews into police wagons.

The reports said that the Jews were taken to Budapest police headquarters and questioned about "money speculation." Most of the Jews were released shortly afterwards. Informed quarters here predicted that the police raids would continue in order to harass the Jewish population and to remind the Jews that they are unwelcome in Hungary.
