Eloquence is a difficult art more honored in the failure than in the achievement. There are very few in this part of the world who are as consistently eloquent as Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver of Cleveland, and perhaps the reason is that few public men are more consistently sincere than he.

Rabbi Silver is a Zionist. The recent outbreak in Palestine has aroused him, and the result is one of the finest messages to have been delivered on this question. It is entitled "Our Answer" and I quote it in its entirety:

"We shall carry on! We are an ancient race, long acquainted with suffering. Our lone and weary way has been strewn with our martyred dead. But we were never deterred. New graves now mark our course. We shall not now be deterred. We shall carry on.

"Had we feared death we should not now be alive. Had the dread of multitudes and the fury of maddened hordes affrighted us, we should now be commingled dust with the mighty nations of yesterday who sought refuge in arms and perished in their victories.

"But our strength is the irrefragable strength of the spirit, and we carry on.

"We are a patient race. At the feet of stern masters we learned the wisdom and courage of patience. We can wait. We have waited. While time rushed by us, while nations raged and empires crumbled, we waited. We covenanted with eternity never to forget Jerusalem. Through twenty centuries we have not forgotten. We shall not now forget. What we have built others are now turning into ruins. We shall build again upon the ruins—patiently. We know how to build upon ruins.

"We shall carry on!
"We are a proud race—too proud to hate. We have felt the keen edge of treachery before, of broken pledges and unrequited trust. We have been admonished not to place our trust in princes or ruling powers. They befriended us when they need us and betray us in the end. Our trust is in the God of our fathers and in our own unconquerable will. Only the defeated take refuge in hate. We are the undefeated. We carry on.

"HEBRON, SAFED and JERUSALEM—our holy cities! They are holier now and more precious to us because of the fresh blood which has sanctified them. That blood shall be the blood of our re-birth. Our hearts ache for these dear dead. But there is vast comfort in that their martyrdom is unlike the martyrdom of their brothers slain in the Ukraine—vain and wasted sacrifices on alien soil. These died in the land of Israel, and for the land of Israel. Great is the sorrow, but greater still the glory.

"They have taught us how to carry on!

"We sent to the Holy Land emissaries of peace—builders and planters, tillers of the soil and teachers of men—not soldiers. Not a bayonet among the hosts of our people who went forth out of slavery to the land of their promise. They cleared the wilderness. They brought fruitfulness to the waste places. They made plain in the desert a highway for human progress. They brought light and healing and the sacred arts of peace. They have now been met with the sword. So be it.

"We shall carry on!"

A PRINCE HAS FALLEN IN ISRAEL

In two notable cases the late Mr. Marshall demonstrated in a striking manner the qualities of his leadership and ability in defense of Jewish rights. The first was the fight he conducted as the leader of the movement which brought about in 1911 the abrogation by the United States of the treaty of 1832 with Czaristic Russia, because of that country's refusal to recognize American passports in the hands of Jews who were American citizens.

The second notable contribution to the defense of Jewish rights and to the world's new conception of the rights of minorities, was his work in Paris in 1919, when the peace conference was in session following the World War.

On December 14, 1926, when the late Mr. Marshall celebrated his seventieth birthday, he refused to become the object of public praise at a banquet. But a small group of his intimate friends formed a committee, headed by Dr. Vyrus Adler, which presented to him at his home, amidst his family circle, an address which was signed by 7,866 persons, residing in 343 cities in the United States, 425 persons representing 14 institutions of learning and philanthropy with which he was connected, and by 419 representatives of organizations and communities in France, Denmark, Roumania, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Jugoslavia, South America, Canada, and Cuba.

The late Mr. Marshall's office at 120 Broadway, New York City, where he could be found from early in the morning until late in the evening, was a veritable foreign office for Jewish affairs and Ministry of the Interior for American Jewish matters of importance.

On May 6, 1895, Mr. Marshall was married to Florence Lowenstein of New York who died on May 27, 1916. He is survived by three sons, James, a lawyer; Robert, a physician; George, a forestry expert; one daughter, Ruth who is Mrs. Jacob Ellikopf, and four grandchildren. May his soul rest in peace.

TENNIS

The tennis season came to an unofficial close last Sunday when the final matches in the Club Championship tournament were completed and resulted in Mrs. A. M. Shinbane annexing the ladies' singles title and Phil. Hald, the men's title. Both are worthy holders as they so ably demonstrated throughout the season and in the final tournament playing in a very brilliant and consistent manner.

In the ladies event, Mrs. Shinbane met Mrs. Churchill in the final and as these two players are evenly matched a very close battle resulted, Mrs. Shinbane finally emerging the victor in straight sets 6-3, 8-6. The weather was not the kind that is conducive to good tennis, being very windy but nevertheless both played good tennis with Mrs. Shinbane the steeper in the pinches and was therefore able to take advantage of any openings. Mrs. Churchill fought back fiercely and was not beaten until the last point was scored.

In the men's matches Phil. Hald was the dominant figure. He first took on Dr. Churchill in a Semi-Final to decide who meets Hy. Bregman on the Final and he turned in a brilliant performance by beating the Doc. in straight sets 6-0, 6-0. He completely outplayed and outgeneraled his opponent in every department of the game and later on continued his good playing by defeating Hy. Bregman in the Final also in straight sets the scores being 6-4, 6-2. Hy. gave him a good match but the result was never in doubt.

The social committee has completed arrangements for the wind-up to take place in the Y.M.H.A. club rooms on Sunday evening, Sept. 22. Prizes won during the season will be presented and a dance will follow. All members are asked to make it a point to attend and to bring their friends along and to co-operate with the committee in making the event a grand success.

Montefiore Bowling League

By John I. Bernstein

Results—Pari-Mutuels win 3 Games
Spuds win 3 Games.

The trundling as a whole in the Montefiore league was up to a high standard Tuesday last. The Pari-Mutuels, led by Harry Cohen, are now perched on top of the league.

The "Suds" led by Billy Shinoff, finally got themselves into the winning column by administering a three game setback to the "Cardinals," with the aid of Chas. Smithen and Oscar Markusoff.

Hats off to the "Pari-Mutuels" who registered a "Golden Sweep" against the strong "Pick-Up" quintette and are now leading the league.

Both the losing teams, the "Pick-Ups" and "Cardinals" had no mishaps and should have done better.

Honor Roll:

Harry Cohen—216, 221 (572)
Oscar Markusoff—197.

Beny Fingard—197.

Team Standing:
