CALGARY NEWS By Miss Ida Pepper

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Katchen and Miss Bebe Strear of Denver, Colo., are visitors in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Katchen.

Complimenting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Louis Katchen, and her niece, Miss Bebe Strear, Mrs. L. B. Katchen entertained at a reception. Mrs. Katchen and Miss Strear assisted the hostess in receiving the guests, who numbered about 65. The prettily appointed tea table was centered with a silver basket of yellow chrysanthemums and matching tapers, and was presided over for the first hour by Mrs. A. Kline, Mrs. I. Marks, Mrs. H. Karsh, and for the second hour by Mrs. M. Groberman, Mrs. A. H. Goldberg and Mrs. I. Kesnick. Mrs. E. Cohen ushered the guests to the dining room. Assisting in serving were Mrs. S. Kline, Mrs. L. Maerov, Mrs. J. Burka, Miss Dorothy Lewin and Miss Fannie Woolfe.

Miss Pauline Katchen entertained at an informal house dance in honor of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. L. Katchen, and her cousin, Miss Bebe Strear. About forty guests were present.

Miss Mary Joffe left for Edmonton, where she will attend the University of Alberta.

Mrs. L. Diamond, who has been touring Europe, has returned to the city.

A romance culminated happily Friday morning in a pretty wedding service when Lenore Gatt and J. R. Diamond were united in marriage in the Jewish Synagogue by the Rev. Smolensky before a few intimate friends.

Miss Gatt appeared in the city a few months ago on tour with the Orpheum circuit, and it was on this occasion that she met Mr. Diamond. The bride is a graduate of the University of Chicago and was awarded a fellowship at the Jui Liard Graduate School in New York. She is a member of the Mu Thi Epsilon musical sorority.

Mr. Diamond is a well known young business man in the city and is also a popular member in sporting circles.

The honeymoon will be spent at Lake Louise.

A tea was held on Tuesday afternoon under the auspices of the Hebrew Ladies' Aid executive at the home of Mrs. B. Goldenberg, 1931 Twelfth Street West. The proceeds will be donated to local charities.

The pretty tea table, centred with pink carnations, was presided over by Mrs. M. Groberman, Mrs. I. Marks, Mrs. A. Dvorkin and Mrs. L. Rootman. Those assisting were Mrs. J. H. Goodman, Mrs. M. Gaffin, Mrs. Gally, Mrs. S. Sonofsky and Mrs. Pucker.

Honoring Miss Mary Joffe, who leaves on Sunday for Edmonton, where she will enter the University of Alberta, Miss Anita Engle will entertain at tea at her home this afternoon. The guests will be Miss Mary Joffe, Miss Victoria Kesnick, Miss Sugar Shanov, Miss Sara Jaffe, Miss Rose Hart, Miss Lillian Gally, Miss Ida Baltzan, Edmonton, Miss Mozah Goldberg, Miss Corinne Horwitz, Miss Queenie Lawrence, Miss Rosalind Wise, Miss Hetty Marks, Miss Vera Shapiro, Miss Hannah Lipetz, Miss Beth Hector, Miss Dinah Litchinsky, Miss Anne Austin, Miss Sophie Austin, Miss Fanny Wener, Miss Dorothy Lewen, Chicago, and Miss Sadie Simon.

The lovely home of Miss Fanny Diamond was the rendezvous of more than seventy-five guests when she entertained at a house dance in honor of Miss Dorothy Fisher who is visiting her cousin, Miss Ruth Wener. The orchestra in attendance was an interesting feature of the evening.

A hard time surprise party was held in honor of Miss Julia Steinfield at the home of her parents. The main feature of the evening was the presentation of a beautiful gift to the guest of honor by the convener, Miss Mona Dvorkin. Prizes were won by Miss Rebecca Gourevitch. About twenty guests were present.

Miss Ida Balsam of Edmonton is a Calgary visitor, and is the guest of Miss Betty Epstein.

Mr. I. Morris of Vancouver is spending several months in the city.

The Misses Jessie Cohen, Hazel Cohen and Evelyn Shlain and Dr. B. N. Shlain, Ted Cohen and Charlie Nelson of Edmonton motored to Calgary for the week-end.

REGINA NEWS By Miss B. Zoninfield

Fay Minovitz has returned home after spending a week in Winnipeg.

Miss Dolly Komarofsky has returned to her home in St. Boniface, Man., after spending the past three weeks in the city.

Mrs. E. Waxman was the winner of an oleander plant which was donated by Mrs. O. Leibovitch to be raffled in aid of the Palestine Emergency Fund.

A meeting of the Anna Seick Chapter, Junior Hadassah, was held on Sept. 17th, at the home of Anne Shragge. Amongst other discussions the main purpose of the meeting was to hold elections, and the following officers were elected: President, Pearl B. Helman (by acclamation); vice-president, Anne Shragge (re-elected); recording secretary, Mary Bellas; corresponding secretary, Anne Naimark; treasurer, Belle Milner; executive committee, Sylvia Israels, Becky Zoninfield, Charlotte Pinsk and Tilly Cohen. A brief outline of the aims and work of Hadassah was given by Belle Milner.

Mrs. Thomas Lesk entertained in honor of Mrs. A. Waisler, Los Angeles. Six tables were in play, the honors going to Mrs. D. B. Kleiman and Mrs. Max Kovsky. The guest of honor was presented with a pretty gift. The hostess was assisted in looking after the guests by Mrs. Ben Lesk, Mrs. H. Hyman and Mrs. Rozenswag.

BRUDERHEIM NEWS

In response to the appeal sent out by the Palestine Emergency Fund Committee, the Jewish community of Bruderheim, which consists of six families, held a meeting on Sept. 5th and raised one hundred dollars for this very urgent cause.

Mr. S. Fogelson acted as chairman for the evening. The following contributed: Mr. W. Olin, $30; Mr. S. Fogelson, $30; Mr. H. Tarnow, $15; Mr. A. Loomer, $15; Mr. H. Sorokin, $5; Mr. A. Lutsky, $5.

It is our hope that every Jewish community in Western Canada, small and large, will make a special effort to raise funds to help our stricken brethren in Eretz Israel.

The Misses Lillian and Ann Tarnow entertained at a Beach party on Sunday, Sept. 1st, at South Cooking Lake. Their guests were Miss Florence Liskear, Edmonton; Dr. Syd Gelfand, Mr. Alfred Berman and Mr. Fred Friedman, all of Winnipeg.

All successful men have agreed in one thing—they were cautionists. They believed that things went not by luck, but by law... Belief in compensation, or, that nothing is got for nothing—characterizes all valuable minds.—Emerson.
