Letter to the Editor
 Dear Sir:
 I would like to take this opportunity of sincerely thanking you for the copies of The Jewish Post you are so regularly sending me. The other fellows, who share it, also appreciate it very much.
 All the world-wide news items are of great interest to us, as is the local social news from home.
 Please keep up this courtesy as we would be deeply disappointed if we missed our regular Jewish Post.
 Thanking you, I am,
 L/A/C TED L. FOGEL,
 R.C.A.P.

THREE NUTRITION CENTRES OPENED IN NORTH END
 The Health for Victory committee announces the opening of three new nutrition centres in the north end area of Winnipeg. Miss Katharine Middleton, the chairman of the committee, urges all housewives in the districts to register for the six week's course immediately, as the numbers in the classes are limited. The three centres will open as follows: Wednesdays, at 7.45 p.m., at Robertson House, at Burrows and McKenzie avenue, beginning this week, March 18; at the All Peoples' Mission, Sutherland and Euclid avenue, on Thursdays, beginning March 19, at 8 p.m.; and at the All Peoples' Mission, 466 Stella avenue, on Fridays, beginning March 20, at 8 p.m.

ENJOY TASTY HORSE RADISH WITHOUT SHEDDING TEARS PREPARING IT YOURSELF
 The wise Jewish housewife does not have to shed a gallon of tears now to prepare the horse radish that every member of the family enjoys so well. She simply walks over or telephones her grocer and orders Tasty Horse Radish all prepared and just as delicious as any home-made horse radish that was ever made. With Passover approaching every wise woman will want to provide her household with a smartly packed jar of Tasty Horse Radish, available in various sizes.
 Storekeepers are urged to order their supplies immediately from Tasty Horse Radish Co., and from Weidman Bros., distributors for the West.

 accept our present plight not in meekness and humility as something that is our due, but in the hope that in the world of tomorrow the ledger will be balanced and our wrongs rectified along with the other suffering peoples of the earth.

 In the world of the future we shall ask what we ask for today, impartiality and not appeasement.

The World of the Future spirit rising to plague us after this war is over.

 Every man and woman can help. Community leaders, teachers, heads of organizations, religious advisers and others in positions of influence or authority have a particular responsibility here. But the "man in the street" can equally do his share, during Brotherhood Week and after. The essentials are first, careful thought and study of the entire subject and, second, intelligent co-operation. This is a long-term job, which stretches beyond our own generation into the lives of our children.
 This indeed is the time for men of good will, as the Conference slogan declares. This surely is the moment to build understanding and defeat intolerance. None of us is completely innocent of bigotry or misunderstanding of our brother Americans. Since our country's security depends on our common sense and our personal determination to help, we can do no less. Since the enemies of our nation are ever poised, ready to strike at the weakest spot and utilize that weakness to break down our unity, we must do even more than we think we can.
 The creed of the Conference has special significance today. Men of good will can resist all attempts to split us up along racial or religious lines. Men of good will can help to defend their own cultural or religious groups than their own from false and bigoted attacks. Men of good will can stop rumor and gossip by refusing to allow themselves to listen to prejudiced appeals and by demanding facts always. Men of good will can insist that the rights and privileges of American citizens shall be available to all, regardless of color or creed. Men of good will can cooperate to uproot the propaganda of hatred and fear wherever it shows itself, be it in employment, elections or anywhere else.

Beer Formed First Trades Unions
 The popularity of beer was so great in Holland, Denmark and other countries in Northern Europe that brewers were responsible for the forming of the first trade unions against the oppression of the burghers and handicraftsmen by the privileged classes. Brewers' Guilds, to look after the interest of the brewing craftsmen, were among the earliest craft organizations recorded in these times.
