

THE LIGHT THAT MUST NOT FAIL—

GELBER ADDRESS

Urging the study of the Hebrew language, he saw in it "the sanctification of the Hebrew personality... a rich historical personality that suffices itself over generations."

He warned his audience against infatuation with the sheer physical attractions of their synagogue. The true test of the new house of worship would be its success in making of its congregation "a kehilla K'dosha."

Arabs Claim $715 Million Pledged Israel By Bonn

London (JTA) — Negotiations between Germany and the Conference on Jewish Material Claims Against Germany will also be resumed. Following a series of informal negotiations, the German Cabinet approved a firm and binding offer last week which was not subject to the outcome of the London Conference on Germany's external debts. Under this proposal, the full amount which Germany accepted as due to Israel would be paid over a period of 12 years.

Paris (JTA) — Charges that the French Government is "using" Tunisian Jews against the Moslems, and that this caused the rioting in the French protectorate, are being broadcast by radio stations in Arab League countries.

Toronto — Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Zacks, Ontario Zionist Region president Robert Soren, veteran Congress and Zionist leader A. B. Bennet, and Toronto UJA bigwig Mayer Gasner were some of the local citizens whose presence at Beig's recent Massey Hall rally surprised the Toronto Daily Hebrew Journal's columnist, "Ben Tovim."

Tension in Tunis has abated in the last few days following Arab attacks on Jews which cost the life of one young Jew and the injury of several others.

Halted Sabbath Taxis; Home Bombed

Tel Aviv (JTA) — A large bomb exploded outside the apartment of Communications Minister David Zvi Pinkas in the early hours of the morning of June 22, causing considerable damage to property but injuring no one.

The two men — Amos Kinan, 25, a member of the editorial staff of the independent newspaper Haaretz, and 29-year-old Shatitiel Ben Yair, unemployed — were arrested by policemen patrolling the area in a radio car.

The bomb which exploded was apparently attached to the handle of the door leading into the Minister's apartment.

27 Represent City At Mpls. B.B. Meet

Thirty-seven men and women representing the local B'nai B'rith lodges and chapters will be leaving this week-end to attend the three-day 84th annual convention of District Grand Lodge No. 6 B'nai B'rith in Minneapolis opening June 29. The Women's District Grand Lodge No. 6 will hold their 20th annual convention at the same time in that city and special plans have been made in celebration of this 20th anniversary.

New B'nai B'rith Council Head

Rudolph Kliffer was unanimously elected president of the Central Canadian Council of B'nai B'rith for the coming year, at the annual election meeting held recently. Others elected to executive positions were Dr. Roy P. Brown, 1st vice-president; Nate Brown (Brandon) 2nd vice-president; Mitchell Gordon, secretary; Laurie A. Mainster, general committee man. Herb Nitikman, past president of the Council, acted as chairman for this meeting.

Diamond Dealers Blacklist Germany

New York (JTA) — Two associations representing 2,400 American diamond dealers were indicted this week by a Federal grand jury on charges of conspiring to boycott the diamond industry of Germany in violation of the anti-trust laws. The two groups named were the Diamond Dealers Club with a membership of 1,500 dealers, and the Diamond Centre with 900 members.

suspended by the associations. Jack Sigman, president of the Diamond Dealers Club, said that the members of his association refused to deal with Germany "purely on moral grounds." It was revealed that the United States imports annually about $130,000,000 worth of diamonds. Mr. Sigman said that the amount of diamonds of all types that came from Germany before the war was insignificant and had no effect on the world market.

The door was demolished and doors and windows throughout the building were smashed by the force of the blast. Furniture was destroyed in some of the apartments. Mr. Pinkas, who appeared calmer than most other people on the scene, told police that no one had knocked on the door nor attempted to gain entrance to the apartment before the bomb went off, some time after midnight.

Meanwhile, members of the Orthodox parties in Parliament, have announced their intention of demanding a debate on the attack on Mr. Pinkas, and Behor Shitreet, Minister of Police, is expected to report to the Knesset on developments. Mr. Pinkas is a leader of the Religious Bloc in the government.
