Reesa Levy Wed to Larry Nowensky

A double-ring candlelight ceremony was solemnized at 7.30 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 5, at the Hebrew Fraternal lodge when Reesa Doreen, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Levy, became the bride of Larry, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Nowensky. Rabbi H. Herson officiated with Cantor Jack Silverberg chanting the prayers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of nylon lace over satin. The moulded bodice featured a scoop neckline outlined with sequins and seed pearls. The sleeves were three-quarter length. The bouffant skirt fashioned with sequins and net held-over with a train was worn over a crinoline. Her headdress trimmed with sequins and net held her veil of double illusion. She carried a bridal Bible overlaid with orchids and streamers.

Matron of honor was the bride's cousin, Mrs. Corrine Davidow who wore a net cocktail gown of pink lavender and carried a heart-shaped bouquet of roses and blue cornflowers.

Lerner in Israel, Will Speak Here Oct. 17

First program in this year's Zionist Cultural Institute will be held Sunday, Oct. 17, at 8.30 p.m., in the Odeon theatre, it was announced this week by L. S. Matlin, QC, series chairman.

Change from the originally scheduled date of Oct. 10 was necessary since Dr. Max Lerner, outstanding series guest slated to open the Institute, is now in Israel and was unable to return here in time, according to the announcement.

Members of Winnipeg's three men's Zionist clubs, who will comprise the audience at the Odeon Oct. 17, will be the first to hear Dr. Lerner's eyewitness report on Israel's condition. He will arrive here directly from Israel.

Bernice Kliman Weds M. Levine at Rosh Pina

Bernice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Kliman of Holland, Man., became the bride of Marvin Levine, youngest son of Mrs. C. Levine of Winnipeg at a ceremony performed by Rabbi Arthur A. Chiel, assisted by Cantor J. Koussevitsky, Aug. 29 at 6 p.m. in Rosh Pina synagogue. Mrs. Sara Udow sang, accompanied by Harold Green at the organ. The bride wore white nylon tulle over taffeta, the fitted bodice showing a round neckline and cap sleeves. Appliques of silver leaves decorated the bodice and continued into the full skirt. A headdress of the tulle applied with silver leaves held her fingertip veil. She carried an all-white bouquet of orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Manuel Morry, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her gown was of coral nylon tulle. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jack Muttner, Misses Bonnie Marmel, Betty Helgott and Florence Marmel. They were attired identically in blue nylon tulle. Sharon Kliman, the bride's sister, was flowergirl and Marvin Shaffer was ring bearer.

Charles Levine was his brother's best man and ushers were Jack Muttner, Gerald Wright, Daniel Waterman and Albert Rutman. The mother of the bride was attired in a floor length gown of dusty rose chiffon and French lace with matching gloves and headdress. Her corsage was of orchids.

Mrs. C. Levine, mother of the groom, chose a floor length gown of grey chiffon with a lace redingote. Her corsage was of orchids.

A reception was held in the synagogue. Mr. and Mrs. Levine left for a trip to Niagara Falls, Minneapolis and Chicago. They will make their home in Winnipeg.
