Pittsburgh — Dr. Mindel C. Sheps, who graduated from the University of Manitoba Medical College in 1937 has been elected a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. The letter from the Association stated: A person designated as a Fellow in AAAS is recognized as having contributed to the advancement of science either by the publication of research or in other significant manner. Generally, this is interpreted as including advanced teaching, guiding of research, holding office in scientific societies, application of techniques in new areas with outstanding results, and otherwise contributing to the status of the profession in a systematic and outstanding manner." Dr. Sheps is now a professor of biostatistics in the graduate school of public health at the University of Pittsburgh. Her husband, Dr. Cecil G. Sheps, who also graduated from the Manitoba Medical College in 1937, is professor of medical and hospital administration at the graduate school of public health at the University of Pittsburgh. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cherniack of 333 St. John's Avenue in Winnipeg.

Moose Jaw—Boris Dubinsky, Q.C., former Winnipegger and for the past 37 years a prominent Moose Jaw solicitor, was elected president of the Law Society of Saskatchewan at the December convocation of the Benchers of the Society in Regina. Mr. Dubinsky received his B.C.L. from the University of Manitoba and subsequently articulated in Regina. Upon his admission to the Saskatchewan Bar, he was the winner of the Law Society gold medal. He is the senior partner of the Moose Jaw firm of Dubinsky and Dubinsky and most recently represented the Saskatchewan Law Society at the annual convention of the Alberta society last week in Edmonton.

Corning, N.Y. — Mr. and Mrs. David Fine, nee Norma Mellon, announce the birth of a son, Daryle Lee; a brother to Ian Michael. Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Mellon of Winnipeg and Mr. Fine of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. David Brodovskyy, nee Sheila Pierce, announce the birth of their daughter, Sharon Yale, on Sunday, Jan. 19, at the Misericordia Hospital; a sister for Billy and Stephen. Grandparents are Mrs. N. S. Brodovskyy and Dr. and Mrs. M. M. Pierce. Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. B. Pierce and Mrs. R. Brodovskyy.
