Cantor Moses Jacob Welcomed Back

The Winnipeg Jewish community welcomed back Cantor Moses Jacob last week, after an extended stay of half a year in Vancouver. Recovered from his illness, Cantor Jacob will again be making his valued cultural contributions to the community. In Vancouver, he did pioneer work in initiating and conducting the first Jewish community choir. Winnipeg Jewry wishes him long years of health and communal work ahead.

Before leaving Vancouver, at the concert of the Jewish Community choir on March 16, Cantor Jacob was presented with a handsome gift

BERT BECKMAN

Vancouver — Bert Beckman, formerly of Winnipeg, beloved husband of Becky Beckman and son of Mr.

York City, and Victor Walker, of Brandon, Man.; three daughters, Mrs. S. Mathews, Tiffin, Ohio; Mrs. Jennie Parks and Mrs. Fanny Goldberg, of Winnipeg; nine grandchildren, and two great grandchildren.

Hyman Walker, Winnipeg Oldtimer, Passes

On Friday, March 17, Hyman Walker, a Winnipeg oldtimer, passed away. He was in his nineties at the time of his death. Rabbi H. Herson officiated at the funeral services at the Chesed Shel Emech chapel, at 3 p.m., and burial was made in the Shaarey Zedek cemetery.

The late Mr. Walker was a pioneer Jewish farmer in Bender Hamlet, now known as Narcesse, Man., arriving there from London 45 years ago. One of the outstandingly successful Jewish farmers, his work was a model for the community, and his bred horses were the pride of the province. His wife, who predeceased him in 1943, was a leading intellectual of the province's Jewish community. She had been school-mate of Israel Zangwill's, in London, and was an accomplished pianist.

Surviving are three sons, Ed Walker and Al Walker, of New

It isn't our fault that we have forgotten the meaning of our Jewish holidays. It is the fault of our parents for they too have unconsciously forgotten. Yes, if our great grandparents could see us now they would be amazed at how little we have remembered — how we have disregarded the true meanings of our Jewish holidays.

JUST A MINUTE... WITH YOUTH
By SANDRA BROWN

Many, many thousands of years ago, so the Bible tells us, a great man named Moses rescued his people — the Jews, from slavery and death. Those Jews are our ancestors. Today, the celebration of that event is called "Pesach."

We are supposed to eat matzo as a symbol of the suffering of our people. However, the Jewish youth today show no evidence of suffering or even just a little pain. Most of us, including myself, look forward to Pesach because it means a holiday from school, two delicious
