

What the Women Should Wear Touring Israel

PLANNING your wardrobe for a coming trip to Israel? If so, regardless of the season, plan your vacation attire for this sunny Mediterranean country to be the most casual and comfortable collection of clothes you've ever enjoyed while touring a foreign land.

You can forget your formal! Grab your sun-glasses, pack up some of your sporty spring and summer costumes and be off! And don't forget to leave some space in your suitcase for the Israeli knits, bikinis, jewellery and furs you'll see and want to buy.

Whenever you visit Israel, you'll find summer weather in at least two or three locales. Spring climate prevails from March through June and again from September through December, except in the desert region in the south where it is always summer. At Tiberias, in northern Galilee, you'll be 682 feet below sea level, and you'll find it is quite warm most of the year. Both Tiberias and Eilat on the Red Sea, incidentally, are popular sports-centres for swimmers and skin-divers, not to mention boating and fishing enthusiasts.

Spring, summer, and fall are the rainless seasons. You'll want your two or three piece knits, lightweight wools, or dresses with or without jackets and skirts and sweaters or blouses for the in-between months when the weather can be either on the cool or the warm side with no guarantee either way. For evenings in Tiberias during the spring and fall months, a little linen sheath or suit, or a knit outfit is fine. Nothing dressier than your dress with a matching jacket or a suit is necessary in more sophisticated Tel Aviv, Jerusalem, or Haifa.

You may feel better taking a lightweight knit coat if your vacation in Israel will be closer to January than June, but it's unlikely that the country will be cooler than 60-65° at these spring and fall times. If you'll be in Israel in April or May, you'll be smarter planning a more lightweight version of your sports wardrobe, since it's almost summer then!

You'll need your beachwear for the resorts in spring and fall, and a cotton or dacron shirtwaist is a must for your tours in the Negev, regardless of season.

Don't be surprised if you observe tourists and natives in sports shirts and casual footwear in city restaurants or clubs. You, too, should be sporty and casual in your dress unless you're planning to attend a formal function or a gala celebration. If this is the case, take along your most stunning costume! You'll see the latest, chicest fashions —
