Amidst a setting of white carnations and mums, the marriage of Phyllis, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Smordin, of Spiritwood, Sask., to Dr. Eli Adler, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Adler, of Vegreville, Alta., was solemnized Sunday, June 10, in the Herzlia Academy, Winnipeg. Rabbi Dr. A. Kravetz performed the ceremony, assisted by Cantor J. Lev.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, was radiant in a ballerina-length gown of imported eyeliner. The groom was lovely in a copen blue dress of crepe de Chine with matching lace featured on the neckline and skirt. She wore complementing pink hat and gloves and a corsage of pink roses.

Dinner followed the noon ceremony, with Dr. Harry Corman, uncle of the bride, as master of ceremonies.

Edmonton — Miss Rose Marie Sokolow has arrived from Vancouver for her wedding in the early fall to Mr. Leon Glassman of Regina. Her mother, Mrs. B. Sokolow, entertained 100 guests recently in her honor at a luncheon reception in the Macdonald. Receiving the guests with Mrs. Sokolow and her daughter was Mrs. C. G. Glassman, of Regina, mother of the groom-elect.

Chicago — Mr. and Mrs. Alex Weingrod, nee Bracha Soloway of Winnipeg, announce the birth of their son, Aaron Harold, on July 14, a brother for Daniel Leib.

skirt. Enhancing the sweetheart neckline, the bride wore a single strand of pearls. A matching eylet cap held her chapel veil of silk illusion. She carried a prayer book overlaid with white feathered carnations and lily of the valley.

As maid of honor, Miss Diane Adler, sister of the groom, chose a sky blue waltz length gown of waffled nylon. She carried a cascade bouquet of white mums and feathered pink carnations. Her headress was of matching flowers.

The bridesmaids, Misses Lillian Corman, cousin of the bride, Mona Pinsk, and Mrs. Lillian Frohlich wore cocktail length gowns in shades of pink and blue. They carried bouquets of white mums and pink carnations, with matching pink carnations in their hair.

Junior bridesmaid, Miss Gay Smordin, cousin of the bride, was pretty in blue organdy. She carried a bouquet of white and blue marguerite daisies.

Mr. Sidney Adler, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushering the guests were Messrs. Ted Adler, brother of the groom, Harold Smordin and Shelby Smordin, brothers of the bride.

Mother of the bride looked beautiful in a teal blue dress of peau de soie fashioned on princess lines and featuring French lace applied on the yoke and bodice. To complete her ensemble, she chose matching hat and gloves and wore a corsage of talisman roses.

Miss Israel Balks at Posing With Miss Germany — Then Gives In

Long Beach, Calif. (JTA) — A publicity man's dream picture very nearly never got made here last week. The incident occurred when Sara Tal, Miss Israel, competing for the title of Miss Universe, was asked to pose with Marina Orschel, Miss Germany.

Miss Tal at first refused to pose as requested. She said, "If I posed with her, I would be afraid to go home and face my mother." All of her mother's family were wiped out by the Nazis during World War II. But evidently counsels of international amity prevailed and the picture of the two smiling girls made Page One all around the country.

Ann Doreen Rittberg Wed to Harry Rubinfela

Rosh Pina synagogue was the scene of a lovely wedding on Sunday, June 17 at 6 p.m., when Ann Doreen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

A. Rittberg, was united in marriage with Harry Rubinfeld, only son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Rubinfeld. Rabbi Arthur Chiel performed the ceremony, assisted by Cantor David Boroditsky. The wedding music was played by Harold Green, and Miss Rashi Dudgeier sang the Hebrew prayer.

The bride was escorted to the canopy by her father, under tall standards of white and pink spring blooms. She wore a Liane original gown in white Chantilly lace over bridal satin applied with iridescent sequins and pearls. The bodice was fashioned with a scalloped V neckline and short sleeves. She wore lace gloves. Her fingertip veil of English silk illusion applied with Chantilly lace was held by a half crown of iridescent sequins and pearls. The bride's bouquet was of stephanotis centred with a mauve orchid.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Pearl Rosenberg, sister of the bride, attired in a pink cocktail gown with matching accessories. Bridesmaids were Misses Esther Garfinkel and Myrna Newhouse, attired in blue cocktail length gowns, and Miss Annette Bush and Mrs. Tobie Koffman attired in coral cocktail length gowns. Miss Pamela Atnikov, cousin of the bride, was flower girl, in a pink taffeta dress. All attendants carried identical bouquets of white daisies with headresses to match.

Jack Koffman was best man for his brother-in-law. Ushers were Jack Rubinfeld, Saul Guttman, Paul Granovsky and Irving Plosker.

Mrs. A. Rittberg, mother of the bride, chose a gown of blue lace over taffeta with matching accessories. Her corsage consisted of a lilac orchid.

Mrs. M. Rubinfeld, mother of the groom, chose a floor length gown of champagne satin applied with embroidered champagne net and matching hat and gloves. Her corsage was a lilac orchid.

A dinner and dance followed the ceremony.

ZIMMERMAN'S COLUMN

"Would Your Widow Have to Work?"

If you were to die unexpectedly would your widow have to work? In my 35 years in the insurance business I've often seen the pitiful consequences of a man's death leaving his family financially insecure. Often the widow must work eight hours a day, to the neglect of her young children. Through life insurance you can easily give your family all the protection afforded by a small fortune in the bank.

I'll be pleased to give personal attention to all your insurance needs. Just call:
