

Social & Personal

To insure insertion of items on this page phone Miss Zoe Isaacs, Society Editor; Telephone 71 871, or mail to The Jewish Post, P.O. Box 337, 1000 Bloor Street West, Toronto, Ont. To avoid mistakes, write clearly on one side of paper only.

Mr. Clarence Cohen, Claremont Ave., Norwood, left the city on Sunday evening October 6th for New York where he will holiday for the next three weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. I. Steinman and daughter, Marcie, who were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Steinman, 681 Stella Ave., left the city for their home at Kamsack, Sask. on September 30th.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wire, Maryland St., returned to the city on Thursday Oct. 3rd after spending the past month visiting in New York, Montreal and other points east.

Mrs. M. Goldstine accompanied by her daughter Mrs. Frank Klinman, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. Solomon, Monterey Apts. for several days, left for their home at Duluth, Minn. on Wednesday evening October 2nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis-Cowan of Calgary, Alta., who have recently returned from a two month motor trip to British Columbia and Washington, accompanied by their Mr. Jules Cowan of San Antonio, Texas, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gordon, Lethbridge, Alta., over the festive holidays.

Mr. Cyril Halter of 188 Home St., son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Halter who has been visiting for the past few months in the east has left for Chicago Ill. where he has entered the Illinois College of Chiropractic and Foot Surgery.

The Immigrant Education classes of the Local Council of Jewish Women held their registration on Wednesday October 9th. Those who failed to register, please come on the opening day Tuesday October 15th, at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. S. Shatsky, Pelly, Sask. arrived in the city on Sunday September 29th, and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Shatsky, King St.

The Umcuma Club held their first meeting of the season at the home of Miss Rose Kaskovitch, where the following officers were elected:—Miss Esther Cohen, President; Miss Sarah Kohn, Treasurer; Miss Betty Mantell, Secretary; Miss Rose Lupinsky, Sport Captain. Activities for the coming year were briefly outlined, and it was decided to hold a dance at the Peretz Shul on Nov. 17th.

Miss Pearl Floom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Floom, left on Sunday September 29th, on a three months trip to Philadelphia where she will visit with her Uncle.

The Young Women's K.I. Sisterhood are giving their second annual Yom Kippur Dance on October 14th, at the Roseland Gardens. Reserve your tables now as the demand for tickets is great.

Miss Fanny Shafer, 209 Garfield Street, has returned from a two weeks' visit at Minneapolis during which time she was the guest of Mrs. Charles Fitzerman.

The Young Women's Auxiliary of the Mount Carmel Clinic will hold their annual election of officers and executive for the ensuing year on Tuesday evening October 15th, at 8 o'clock. All members and those interested in this noble work are asked to come and give a helping hand.

Miss Rose Bogoch has left for Chicago to continue her vocal studies.

In honor of Nurse Luow her aunt, Goldie Fishman, entertained a few friends. Those present were: Misses Bessie Levin, Diana Luow, Esther Levin and Edith Luow; Messrs. Dr. J. D. Feldman, I. Phomin, G. Kershner, F. Dubinsky and I. Rottman.

Mrs. H. Yacht and daughter Cecile of Moose Jaw, Sask., returned to their home recently after a six weeks' visit in the City.

The Misses Brina and Rose Schwartz, Pritchard Ave., entertained at a delightful bridge in honor of Miss Anne Perilmeter and Mrs. H. Cohen of Des Moines, Iowa. The prize winners of the afternoon were Miss A. Perilmeter, Mrs. B. Resnick and Mrs. Koplarsky. The dainty tea table was very attractive with its centre of yellow roses offset by tapers of matching shade.

Mrs. M. D. Simons, Windsor Apts., entertained Saturday, Sept. 28th, in honor of her daughter Ruth Elaike's eighth birthday.

The afternoon was spent in games and dancing. The room was tastefully decorated with streamers and the table was set off by a beautiful birthday cake and candles to match. The little guests present were: Ruth Simons, Muriel Ferguson, Zoe Gordon, Estelle Sodomsky, Grace Maza, Anita Gulardo, Ruth Goyle, Gloria Pierce, Phyllis Rosenblat, Diana Chechick, Ruth Smith, Clara Goyle and Shelle Yates. Miss Sonia Martoff and Arthur Simons acted as hosts.

Miss Anne Perilmeter of Los Angeles, Cal., is visiting in Winnipeg and is the guest of Misses Brina and Rose Schwartz, 380 Pritchard Ave.

The unveiling of the monument in memory of (Mrs. Annie) Pullen will take place on Sunday morning, September 29th, at 10 o'clock, at the Shaarey Zedek Cemetery. All members of the Young Women's K.I. Sisterhood are asked to meet at the home of Mrs. S. Porter, 423 Alfred Ave.

The Ushiskin Chapter of Hadassah held a very enjoyable afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. Globerman, Burrows Ave., on Tuesday afternoon, September 23rd. Seven tables of bridge were arranged, the honors going to Mrs. Benital and Mrs. Melon. At the conclusion of cards the hostesses for the afternoon, Mrs. Globerman and Mrs. D. Goldstein, served a very dainty lunch.

Perth Dye Works Ltd. were "at home" to their 100 employees Saturday evening, Sept. 14, on the occasion of the opening of a large new addition to their plant at 484 Portage Ave. Refreshments were served and dancing was indulged in to music by Moore's Dance Orchestra.

Mrs. Herbert Winston, Eugenie St., was a charming hostess at bridge and tea at the Royal Alexandra Hotel, September 28th, in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. H. Ginsberg, Chicago, and Mrs. M. Slobinsky, Winnipeg, who is leaving for California. Covers were laid for 26. The guests of honor were recipients of lovely gifts.

A number of ladies of the Young Women's and Ladies' Auxiliaries of the Mount Carmel Clinic delightfully surprised their retiring President, Mrs. G. Gordon at a luncheon on Tuesday, September 24th, in the Banquet Room of Eaton Grill. The table was very prettily arranged with vases of summer blooms. On behalf of the Auxiliaries, Mrs. Mark Harris, in a few well chosen words, presented the guest of honor with a lovely picture in appreciation of her faithful service as president of the Auxiliary for the past four years. Mrs. Gordon suitably replied.

DEBONAIRE
AND THE FALL SHOWING
Everything is New and Different!

Colors are different — rich and warm and lively; lines are different — fancy, flaring and frilly; fabrics are different — formal and ornate. Yes, the fall mode is coming in with a whirl, with a feminine grace, "pretiness" it hasn't possessed for many a season. You are cordially invited to look around here a bit before you make up your mind on the all-important question of the perfect winter ensemble. Coats, Suits, Dresses, Hats. — All here for your delectation and at remarkably low prices. Charge Accounts Invited.

DEBONAIRE
Exclusive
Frock and Millinery
282 KENNEDY
A few doors North of Portage

SUPERFLUOUS HAIR REMOVED
By Multiple Needle Method, Warts, Moles, etc.
SCIENTIFIC FACIAL AND SCALP TREATMENTS
Established 30 Years.

Coates Coleman Institute
506 McARTHUR BUILDING
Phone 21 701 Call or Write for Booklet

Stanwood's
Established 1904

WE HAVE MOVED
Come and See Us in Our New Store
429 PORTAGE AVE.
(Formerly Crescent Furniture Store)
North Side of Portage Avenue Near Vaughan Street
Open Saturday Evenings Till 10 o'Clock

Stanwood's
LIMITED
429 PORTAGE AVENUE TELEPHONE 88 972
RADIOS PANATROPES RECORDS

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Mrs. L. D. Kramer and daughter Doreen are the guests of her sister, Mrs. F. Barnes, 23 Carman Apts.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Mount Carmel Clinic held their opening meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Colman Greenstone, 545 Salter Street. Arrangements for a membership drive and programme of activities for the coming season such as hikes, snowshoe parties, bridges and novel affairs were arranged and discussed.

Mr. David Hochman, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Hochman, 129 Machray Ave., left for Harvard University, where he will resume his studies. Mr. Hochman is a graduate of the University of Manitoba, Class '29. He was President of the University Political Economy Club during 1928-29. Mr. Hochman will specialize in mathematics and business administration.

Mr. Wm. R. Nemerovsky, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Nemerovsky, 342 College Ave. left for Toronto to attend the University of Toronto, where he will take his Ph. D.

Udow - Cohen

A very lovely fall wedding took place on Tuesday afternoon, September 10th in the Crystal Ball-room at the Royal Alexandra Hotel when Florence daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Cohen was united in marriage to Mr. David Udow, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Udow. An erected canopy entwined with sunlax and roses and banded on either side with standards of lovely summer blooms made a lovely setting for the ceremony which was performed by Rabbi S. Frank, assisted by Cantor Kastner.

At the appointed hour the bridegroom and his groomsmen Mr. Lawrence Udow took their places under the canopy and to the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin" softly played by an orchestra, the bridal party started up the aisle preceded by the ushers, Messrs. Abe Vinberg, Charles Powlotsky, and Louis Oretsky. The bridesmaid Miss Clarice Udow, in orchid, and Miss Sophia Freedman (of Los Angeles, Cal.) in Nile green, were gowned alike in smart frocks of satin de chine, the bodices were straight and tight fitting, long sashes falling gracefully from the shoulders, and touching the bottom of the flared skirt which fell in soft cascades in an uneven hemline. Satin flowers were worn in their hair. They carried bouquets of Matchless roses. The Maid of Honor, Miss Gladys Cohen, sister of the bride, wore a smart gown in baby blue, fashioned on the same lines as the bridesmaids. Satin flowers nestled in her hair and she carried lovely primrose roses. The Matron of Honor, Mrs. A. Vinberg (Regina, Sask.) sister of the groom, chose a pretty gown of peach georgette. Soft tiers falling from her shoulders to the hemline which just escaped the ground at the back. French roses adorned her hair and she carried Russette roses. Next came the dainty little flower girl, Miss Myra Vinberg (Regina, Sask.) niece of the groom, wearing a yellow satin frock prettily frilled. She carried a nosegay of summer blooms. Lastly came the lovely bride on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. She wore a beautiful wedding gown coat of Navy Blue kittens Ear cloth with Elizabethan collar of squirrel. She wore a model hat, shoes and bag to match in blue.

Mrs. Cohen chose a lovely outfit in black chiffon, the cocktail jacket being outlined in rhinestones. She wore a french model black felt hat in mohair and a corsage of American beauty roses.

Mrs. Udow wore a striking gown of Black Spanish lace and chiffon with black model hat and a shoulder bouquet of American beauty roses.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Malinsky, 57 Bannerman Ave., Winnipeg, Man. announce the engagement of their only daughter Rose to Mr. Sam Pollock, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Pollock, 662 Redwood Ave. Winnipeg.

Miss Rose Shaprio, a bride-elect of October was the honored guest recently at a happily planned luncheon given by Miss Esther Roseman, at Eaton's Grill Room. The lovely luncheon table centred with a miniature bride and groom and vases of yellow gladiolas had covers laid for twenty guests. Streamers from a chandelier in yellow shades added to the attractiveness of the table. Miss Shaprio was the recipient of a lovely gift.

(continued on page 22)

SUPPORT THE ICOR

Come To The Dance Sunday, OCTOBER 27th.

Tag Day Oct. 13th

DO YOUR SHARE

Dance At The I. L. Peretz Hall
Aberdeen and Salter

Hearty Greetings!
—To All Our Friends

Famous Players
Neighborhood Theatres

GAIETY TIVOLI OSBORNE WONDERLAND CRESCENT ARLINGTON

of ivory transparent velvet. It was fashioned with the bodice moulded to the figure, the fulness of the skirt introduced at the low waistline, falling in a deep flare to an uneven hemline. The unusual neckline was bordered in rhinestones and seed pearls, as were the long tight-fitting sleeves. Her veil of tulle was caught into a cap of Juliet fashion, outlined in rhinestones and pearls and caught at either side with a cluster of orange blossoms. She carried a lovely bouquet which was Lily-of-the-valley, Ophelia roses and orchids.

During the signing of the register Miss Elsie Brook, effectively sang, "Oh Promise Me."

Following the ceremony, dinner was served with covers laid for one hundred and fifty guests. The tables were artistically arranged with lovely summer blooms.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Udow left for the States, Mrs. Udow travelling in a Navy More silk dress in tailored lines hand drawn work being the only trimming over which she wore a smart