

at a delightful bridge in honor of Miss Anne Perimeter and Mrs. H. Cohen, of Des Moines, Iowa. The prize winners of the afternoon were Miss A. Perimeter, Mrs. B. Resnick and Mrs. Koplarsky. The dainty tea table was very attractive with its centre of yellow roses offset by tapers of matching shade.

Mrs. H. Yacht and daughter, Cecille, of Moose Jaw, Sask., returned to their home recently after a six weeks visit in the city.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Mount Camel Clinic held their opening meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Colman Greenstone, 545 Salter Street. Arrangements for a membership drive and programme of activities for the coming season such as hikes, snowshoe parties, bridges and novel affairs were arranged and discussed.

A number of Ladies of the Young Womens and the Ladies Auxiliaries of the Mount Camel Clinic delightfully surprised their retiring president, Mrs. G. Gordon, at a luncheon on Tuesday, September 24th, in the Banquet Room of Eaton Grill. The table was very prettily arranged with vases of summer blooms. On behalf of the auxiliaries, Mrs. Mark Harris, in a few well chosen words presented the guest of honor with a lovely picture in appreciation of her faithful service as president of the auxiliary for the past four years. Mrs. Gordon suitably replied.

Marantz-Goldstein

The Rosh Pina Synagogue was the scene of a pretty wedding, Sunday, September 22, at 5 o'clock, of Sarah, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marantz, to Mr. George Goldstine, of Winnipeg. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Kahanovitch.

At the appointed hour the groom with Mr. C. Percy Marantz, brother of the bride, as groomsman, took his place under the canopy.

Miss Tillie Cristall, cousin of the bride as maid of honor, was the bride's only attendant. She looked charming in a gown of pale blue chiffon with tight-fitting bodice, a ruffled full skirt falling in an uneven hemline; shoes and hat to match completing her costume. She carried a bouquet of red roses and carnations.

Then came the bride, who was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white chiffon and lace with a full skirt that almost reached the floor, and the tight bodice with shoulder straps caught with rhinestones, her veil being Juliet style, was caught with a wreath of lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses and valley lilies.

Following the ceremony a dinner-dance was held at Levin's Restaurant on Martha Street.

Mrs. A. Marantz, mother of the bride, chose for this occasion a gown of black Canton crepe with a tunic of sand, and wore a smart black felt hat to match.

Mrs. P. Cristall, aunt of the bride, wore a lovely gown of blue georgette, all tucked, with a centre opening of beige embroidered with coral beads and a smart hat to match.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cristall, Mr. and Mrs. Garry Cristall, and Miss Eve Cristall, all of Brandon, Man., and Mr. and Mrs. Stein, of Stonewall, Man.

Powlotsky—Udow

A very pretty wedding took place in the gold drawing-room of the Royal Alexandra Hotel on Thursday at high noon, September 26th, when Clarice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Udow, and Charles Powlotsky, son of Mrs. and the late Mr. M. Powlotsky, were united in marriage. Rabbi Frank, assisted by Rabbi Kahanovitch officiated. The lovely bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a striking model suit of brown Chiffon Velvet with hat and shoes in tones to match and carried a bouquet of Drummond Roses and orchids. Mrs. A. Vineberg (Regina), sister of the bride, acted as matron or honor. She chose a lovely gown of honey-dew georgette and smart hat of brown felt and carried Desmond roses. Little Miss Myra Donna Vinberg (Regina), niece of the bride, as flower girl, was daintily attired in a pretty frock of pale yellow satin. A wreath of flowers adorned her hair. She carried a basket of summer blooms. The bridegroom was attended by his brother Mr. Jack Powlotsky. After the wedding ceremony, dinner was served to the immediate family in the Windsor room. The table was artistically decorated with a profusion of vari-colored blooms and softly lighted by tapers. Mr. and Mrs. Powlotsky left for the east, the bride travelling in a model blue gown and smart black coat trimmed with silver fox. A chic black hat with a touch of blue, black shoes and bag completing her costume.

Mrs. Udow, mother of the bride, chose a lovely black lace and chiffon gown and becoming black hat. She wore a corsage of American beauty roses. Mrs. Powlotsky, mother of the groom wore a gown of black velvet
