Mrs. J. Simburg entertained at bridge at her home in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. I. Panar, of Lamont, Alta. Bridge honors were won by Mrs. W. Adelman and Dr. Schulman. The guest of honor was the recipient of a lovely gift.

Mrs. S. Vogel, who has spent the past couple of months on an extended visit in the United States and Canada returned home Sunday.

Mrs. H. Blank and son, Sydney, of Winnipeg, are the guests of Mrs. Blank's other-in-law, Mrs. B. Blank.

The Fifth Annual Young Judaea Parent and Children's Banquet was held in the Synagogue hall, Wednesday, March 19th. After a very tasty luncheon, Mr. Max Zaitlen, president and toastmaster opened the evening's program with a few opening remarks. The first numbers on the program were a piano duet by the Misses Pearl and Tillie Gropper, and a vocal solo by Miss Ethel Pollock, accompanied by Miss Dea. Robinson. The first toast to Zionism was proposed by Miss Ida Blank and responded to by Mr. J. M. Goldenberg; to our Mothers, by Mr. Sol Krivel and responded to by Mrs. A. Goorevitch; to Young Judaea by Mrs. N. Shaffer and responded to by Mr. Norman Genser; to Our Fathers, by Miss Freema Goodman, and responded to by Mr. Sam Shore; to Our Honored Guest, Rabbi J. L. Zlotnick by Mr. Max D. Friedman and responded to by Rabbi Zlotnick. Greetings from the Blossoms of Zion, Junior Young Judaea, by Miss Irene Leckie, president. The Young Judaeans of Saskatoon felt not only fortunate, but greatly and highly honored to have had the presence of our distinguished and honored Rabbi, Rabbi J. L. Zlotnick.

The Young Judaeans also had the pleasure of hearing Rabbi Kahanevitch, of Winnipeg, during the evening's program. Dr. D. M. Baltzan made the presentation of the medals to the winning team of the Winnipeg-Saskatoon inter-city debate, who brought the cup home once more. The team was composed of Mr. Dave Chetkow and Mr. Max Friedman. The installation of officers for the year 1930 closed the evening's program, with Mr. Dave Chetkow, president, in the chair. The following is the newly elected executive of the Saskatoon Young Judaea for the coming year, and we all wish them the greatest success in their undertakings. Pres., Dave Chetkow; vice pres., Freda Blank; sec., Clara Shore; Treas., Fanny Zaitlen and Ben Shore; Educational, Max D. Friedman; Entertainment, Ida Blank; Refreshment, Lillian Hearn; Editorial, Freema Goodman.

"Miss Ida Blank was a charming bridge hostess at her home in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. H. Blank, of Winnipeg. Bridge honors went to Mrs. J. White and Miss Ann Trugman. The guests of honor were recipients of beautiful gifts. The hostess was assisted by her sisters, Mrs. Wolfe, Miss Freda Blank, and Miss Lillian Hearn."
