117 "Y" Members On Active Service

The latest edition of the Y.M.H.A. Review reveals that at least 117 members of the organization are with the armed forces on active service, which, on a percentage basis, is an exceptionally good record.

Most of the enlisted members are with the air force. One is with the O.W.A.C., and another with the women's division of the R.C.A.F. At least three are serving with the United States army.

One member served with the Winnipeg Grenadiers at Hong Kong and his fate remains unknown.

The member serving with the C.W.A.C., Sergt. Gertrude Feldman, was the first to be enlisted in that corps in Manitoba.

Of the nine charter members of the Young Men's club of the Y.M.H.A., seven are now on active service and the other two are awaiting a call.
